SUBJECT:

The Restrictions Executive Order

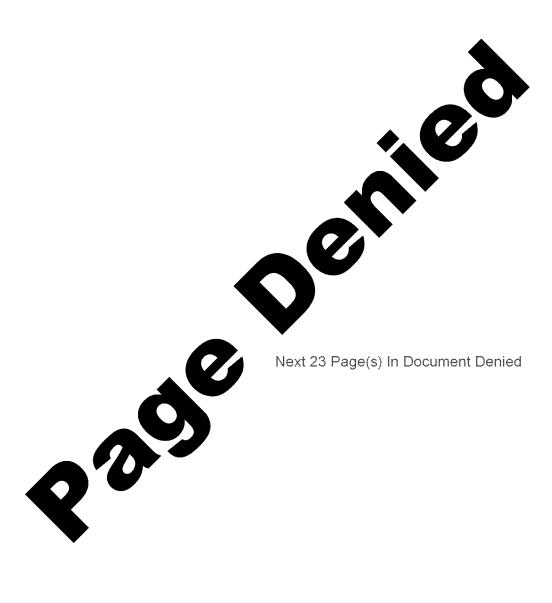

The Defense Department and Justice Department have been working on a redraft of the restrictions executive order. They have not reached total agreement on all parts of the draft. In a number of different areas, this redraft varies from the draft that was included in the materials in the President's decision book on the Intelligence Community. Enclosed are copies of both drafts.

There will be an Intelligence Coordinating Group meeting tomorrow afternoon to discuss the two drafts and to determine the procedures for determining the final draft of the executive order.
